

As Seen IN
May/June 2017 issue

MAGAZINE KEY BISCAYNE®

MIST MAGIC

Spring is once more gracing the thoroughfares and byways of The Magic City, and with it that most draining of seasonal sightseer. And no, we aren't talking about tourists. Mosquitoes have a far bigger presence.

TEXT BY RYAN JARRELL

Although never technically prohibited by climate, outdoor entertaining just feels right when the season springs upon our fiesta-focused municipality. Unfortunately accompanying the burgeoning blooms and torrid temperatures of this most life-affirming of seasons is the prevalence of mosquitoes, no-see-ums and a plethora of other pesky pests. To completely eliminate your infestation situation, SWAT Mosquito Misting Systems maximizes extermination while still maintaining the aesthetic appeal of your home, hotel or restaurant with its tastefully tinted array of custom-constructed misting units, artfully attachable to any suitably sized surface. With an unbeatable blend of technical know-how and top-notch customer service, with SWAT, someone's always got your back...yard, that is; SWATMosquitoSystems.com.

